TERMS AND CONDITIONS

This contract is entered into by the Institute of Scrap Recycling Industries, Inc. (1615 L Street, N.W., Suite 600, Washington, DC 20036-5610), hereinafter referred to as "ISRI," and the Exhibiting Organization named above, hereinafter referred to as "Exhibitor" for the licensing of exhibit space at the 2010 ISRI Convention & Exposition (the "Exposition"), to be held at the San Diego Convention Center - Halls B & C, hereinafter referred to as the "Convention Center," in San Diego, California, May 5-7, 2010.

1. In consideration for payment listed above by Exhibitor, ISRI agrees to:
 - a. license booth space(s) and equipment display space(s) to exhibitor during the Exposition;
 - b. provide exhibitor booth space consistent with the design specifications set forth in Attachment A to this contract ("Exhibit Specifications") attached hereto and specifically incorporated herein. Included in the rental price of the booth space and/or equipment display space are one company identification sign (measuring 7" x 44"), one company listing in the ISRI convention program (provided the booth space is contracted and paid for in full prior to the program printing deadline), one complete printed list of convention registrants, and one listing of convention registrants preregistered as of 30 days prior to the convention to be used solely for promotion of the exhibitor's appearance at the convention;
 - c. provide the following complimentary registrations upon payment in full:
Booth spaces: two full registrations per 10'x10' booth space.
Equipment Display space: four full registrations for the first 400 sq. ft. and two full registrations for each additional 400 sq. ft.;
 - d. provide the option for exhibitors to purchase three (3) Exhibit Hall Personnel badges per 10'x10' booth space or equivalent equipment display space for a fee of $150 each. These badges may only be used by employees of the Exhibitor. Proof of employment status may be required;
 - e. provide the option for Exhibitor to purchase an unlimited additional number of Exhibit Hall Personnel badges at $250 each. These badges may only be used by employees of the Exhibitor. Proof of employment status may be required;
 - f. schedule at least seven (7) hours of exhibit time with no competing general attendance convention-sponsored programs; and
 - g. hold at least one food event in the Exhibit Hall during the Exposition.

2. In consideration of ISRI's services, Exhibitor agrees:

- a. to pay license fees to ISRI in the total amount listed above on or before due dates as described above or the time of submission of this contract, whichever comes later;
- b. to be current in its financial obligation(s) to ISRI, including, but not limited to, advertising debts, at least thirty (30) days prior to the Exposition. ISRI shall have the right to prohibit Exhibitor from exhibiting at the Exposition unless all obligations are paid in full prior to exhibiting;
- c. to notify ISRI in writing on or before December 31, 2009 of cancellation or reduction of licensed space to be eligible for a refund of fees paid less 25 percent of the booth/equipment display license fee to cover nonrefundable administrative costs of processing booth/equipment display license applications. After December 31, 2009, fees are not refundable. However, if all exhibit space is sold out at the time of the Exposition, an amount equal to fees paid (less 25 percent) will be credited to the license of space of equal or greater value at the 2011 Exposition;
- d. to design, implement, and utilize its booth and/or equipment display space(s) consistent with the requirements set out in Attachment A ("Exhibit Specifications") and the Exhibitor Service Kit (available approximately 90 days before the Exposition);
- e. to obtain

1. a commercial general liability insurance policy as broad as ISO CG0001 in the occurrence form providing coverage against claims for bodily injury or death, and property damage occurring in or upon or resulting from the Exhibitor's use or occupancy of the convention facilities and endorsed to include non-owned and hired automobile liability coverage (if Exhibitor does not maintain owned automobile liability coverage) with a limit of not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000.00). Such insurance shall be primary and not require contribution from any of the additional insureds other insurance coverages, and shall afford immediate defense and indemnification, as named additional insureds to: ISRI, the San Diego Convention Center Corporation, the City of San Diego, and the San Diego Unified Port District. The Commercial General Liability policy described above shall include the following additional insured endorsement language:

ISRI, San Diego Convention Center Corporation, Inc., City of San Diego, San Diego Unified Port District, and the members, officers, directors, agents and employees of each of these four entities are named as additional insureds and are provided the same coverage as the named insured, including the cost of defense, against claims for bodily injury, death, or property damage occurring in or upon, or resulting from the insured's use or occupancy of the San Diego Convention Center and/or the San Diego Concourse.

An original certificate of insurance must be received by ISRI no later than February 1, 2010. The certificate must contain the legend that "ISRI will receive 30 days' prior written notice of cancellation of, or any change to, the policy."

2. Workers' Compensation Insurance as required by law;
3. For owned vehicles other than private passenger automobiles, Commercial Automobile Liability coverage with limits not less than $1,000,000.00 for each occurrence combined single limit for bodily injury or death and property damage.

The Commercial General Liability policy described above shall include the following additional insured endorsement language:

ISRI, San Diego Convention Center Corporation, Inc., City of San Diego, San Diego Unified Port District, and the members, officers, directors, agents and employees of each of these four entities are named as additional insureds and are provided the same coverage as the named insured, including the cost of defense, against claims for bodily injury, death, or property damage occurring in or upon, or resulting from the insured's use or occupancy of the San Diego Convention Center and/or the San Diego Concourse.

An original certificate of insurance must be received by ISRI no later than February 1, 2010. The certificate must contain the legend that "ISRI will receive 30 days' prior written notice of cancellation of, or any change to, the policy."

- f. not to assign, sublicense, or apportion the whole or any part of the space allotted, or have representatives, equipment or materials from other than its own company in the said space, without written consent from ISRI;
- g. to abide by all rules and regulations of the Convention Center, which are specifically incorporated herein by reference;
- h. not to use the whole or any part of the space for any illegal purpose, in conflict with any applicable law, ordinance, rule, or regulation of any governmental authority; in any manner which constitutes any waste or nuisance; or in any manner which causes injury to the facilities, or in violation of the rules and regulations of the Convention Center.

3. The Exhibitor's contact person designated above shall be duly authorized by the Exhibitor to act as representative in charge of planning, installing, removing, and staffing the exhibit.

4. Subject to the schedule established by the official exposition service contractor, exhibitors may begin installation 8 a.m. on Tuesday, May 4, 2010, and shall complete such work no later than 2 p.m. on Wednesday, May 5, 2010. Space not occupied by 10 a.m. on Wednesday, May 5, 2010, will be forfeited by Exhibitor. Such space may be resold, reassigned, or used by ISRI without refund of the license fee. No display may be dismantled or removed before the official closing of the Exposition at 4:30 p.m. on Friday, May 7, 2010. All displays and equipment must be removed by 6 p.m. on Saturday, May 8, 2010. All installation and dismantling of displayed equipment must be scheduled in advance with the official service contractor.

5. An exhibitor wishing to appoint its own subcontractor for the physical set-up and dismantling of displays must notify ISRI in writing prior to February 1, 2010. Such notice must include the name, address, and telephone number of the firm and the name of the on-site person who will be in charge of the operation. Other requirements associated with the use of subcontractors are set forth in Attachment "B" to this contract and specifically incorporated herein.

6. Insurance and liability coverage is the full and sole responsibility of the Exhibitor (See Section 2.e for discussion of Exhibitor's responsibilities regarding procurement of insurance). ISRI, its employees and agents and the Convention Center do not maintain insurance covering loss of, or damage to, Exhibitor's property. The furnishing of security guards by ISRI shall not be considered an assumption of liability by ISRI.

- a. Exhibitor assumes all responsibility and hereby agrees to protect, indemnify, defend, and hold ISRI, its employees and/or agents, and the Convention Center, its employees, and/or agents harmless against all claims, expenses, and losses for and damages to persons or property, governmental charges or fines, and attorneys' fees arising out of, or caused by, Exhibitor's installation, removal, maintenance, occupancy, or use of the Exposition premises or a part thereof.

- b. Exhibitor agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold ISRI harmless from any claims of actual or alleged trademark, patent, or copyright infringement related to designs used in booth construction or materials distributed by the Exhibitor. Exhibitor warrants that it has the legal right to display any trademarks or service marks represented on its booth, equipment, or literature.

7. Exhibitor is not acting as an agent of ISRI. By licensing space to the Exhibitor, ISRI does not endorse any of the products sold or exhibited by Exhibitor. Exhibitor agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold ISRI harmless from and against any claims, demands, costs (including attorneys' fees), liabilities, or settlements arising out of the sale or exhibition of any products sold by the Exhibitor at the Exposition. Exhibitor is solely responsible for procuring any governmental licenses or permits required by any governmental authority for conducting business within such government's jurisdiction and shall be responsible for any fees or taxes associated with such activities.

8. If the premises are defaced or damaged by Exhibitor or Exhibitor's representatives, invitees, guests, riggers, haulers, or other contractors engaged for the purpose of moving exhibits and equipment into and out of the exhibit display areas, Exhibitor shall pay the Convention Center and other persons suffering damage as a result therefrom for any and all of such expenses incurred thereby.

9. ISRI reserves the absolute right to change the Exposition dates and sites upon prior written notice to Exhibitor. Upon written request from Exhibitor received within 15 business days after receipt of change notice, ISRI will refund to Exhibitor the full amount of any license and registration fees, without interest, and there shall not be any further liability on the part of either party. ISRI reserves the absolute right to cancel the Exposition and/or Convention either in whole or in part. In the event of cancellation, ISRI shall refund to Exhibitor the full amount of any license and registration fees, without interest, and there shall not be any further liability on the part of either party. In no event will ISRI be liable for any claims or damages associated with loss of income or profits.

10. ISRI reserves the right to relocate Exhibitor to comparable space if deemed advisable by ISRI Exposition Management to further the best interests of the show. Exhibitor will be notified in writing as soon as possible prior to opening of the show and will be given the option of selecting a larger or smaller space, if available, or to cancel. If exhibitor decides to cancel, ISRI shall refund to Exhibitor the full amount of any license and registration fees, without interest, and there shall not be any further liability on the part of either party.

11. In the event of strike, flood, earthquake, fire, labor disputes, acts of God, war, force majeure, acts of terrorism, loss of convention facilities, or any other conditions or circumstances beyond the control of ISRI that shall cause cancellation, delay, disruption, or curtailment of the Exposition, either in whole or in part, either prior to or after commencement of the installation of the Exposition, ISRI shall not be held liable therefore and the license and registration fees shall not be refunded.

12. During the course of the Exposition, ISRI reserves the right to close any exhibit that is found to violate this agreement. In such event, there shall be no refund of either registration or booth license fees. ISRI reserves the right to refuse to permit the Exhibitor to exhibit in one or more future ISRI-sponsored exhibitions by reason thereof.

13. Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this contract or breach thereof, shall be settled by arbitration in Washington, D.C., in accordance with the Commercial Rules of Arbitration of the American Arbitration Association, and any judgment upon the award rendered by the Arbitrator(s) may be entered in any Court having jurisdiction thereof.

14. This agreement supersedes all previous agreements, oral or written, between ISRI, or its representatives, and the Exhibitor and represents the whole and entire Agreement between the Parties. All other agreements, proposals, communications, promises, or representations, oral or written, which have been made shall not be relied upon by either Party. No variations, modifications, or changes to this contract shall be binding unless executed in writing by the Party to be charged. If any provision of this contract is found unenforceable under applicable law, the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

ATTACHMENT A - EXHIBIT SPECIFICATIONS

Physical Dimensions of Booth Spaces. All booth spaces are 10' x 10' (or multiples thereof). Exhibitor is cautioned to contract for sufficient space required to keep its displays, demonstrations, and booth personnel within the confines of its booth. Equipment and/or furniture may not extend into the aisles, over the aisles or across the exhibitor's licensed booth line. Displays must not block the line of sight of adjacent booths. Freight door dock entrance is 20' wide and 16' high. Ceiling height in the equipment display area of the Exhibit Hall ranges between 27'4" and 40 feet.

Load Capacity. The floor load capacity is 350 pounds per square foot.

Height Limits. The height limit of booths is 16 feet. No signs may be suspended above the height limit. No canopies and/or ceilings are permitted without the prior written consent of ISRI. The top of such overhead structures may be no higher than 16 feet. No enclosures or enclosed ceilings may be in excess of 100 square feet.

Hanging Signs. Hanging signs are permitted over island and peninsula booths only.

Back Walls and Side Walls. Where applicable, ISRI will provide Exhibitor with an 8-foot-high draped back wall and two 3-foot-high draped side walls.

Design Specifications. The Exposition is undertaken by ISRI primarily for the education of its members. To this end, Exhibitor agrees to display products or services in a manner that is intended to describe and depict the advantages of using such products or services. ISRI reserves the right to prohibit (or close) any exhibit or part thereof that, in ISRI's sole opinion, is not suitable to, or in keeping with, the educational character and spirit of the Exposition.

Equipment or Product Demonstrations. There shall be no moving or working components without the prior written consent of ISRI. Safety and noise considerations will be monitored. Show management shall be the final arbiter regarding noise emanating from exhibitor displays.

Inappropriate Exhibits. ISRI reserves the right to control or prohibit any exhibit deemed not appropriate. Aisle space or any other area of the Convention Center may not be used for exhibit purposes, display of signs, solicitation, or distribution of cards, circulars, samples, or other promotional material, unless permitted as part of a sponsorship agreement approved by ISRI. Exhibitors agree to abide by rules provided in the exhibitor service kit.

Live Models. The use of live models, performers, and similar persons within the exhibit for demonstrations, explanations, etc., shall be subject to advance written approval by ISRI. Requests to use live models, etc., must be received by ISRI by February 1, 2010.

Prohibitions. Exhibits, signs or displays are prohibited in any of the public rooms or elsewhere on the premises of the Convention Center except as agreed to in advertising or sponsorship agreements. Nothing shall be painted, tacked, nailed, screwed, or otherwise affixed to columns, walls, floors, or other parts of the Convention Center, its furnishings, or outdoor or indoor displays.

Sound, Light, and Audiovisual Devices. The use of sound devices, megaphones, loudspeakers, or undignified methods of attracting attention are prohibited. The use of audio-visual equipment will be permitted only if sound levels and displays are not obtrusive or disruptive of other displays, and ISRI reserves the right to require such devices to be conducted in an appropriate manner. Use of audiovisual equipment shall be subject to local union regulations. Racing or flashing lights are not permitted.

Equipment Displays. Space will be available within the Exposition for displays of equipment. Off-loading and positioning of all equipment must be contracted for through the Exposition's Official Service Contractor. All cranes, crawlers, trucks, trailers, and other equipment must be located within the confines of the space rented. Exhibitor must license adequate space to allow personnel to conduct business within the confines of that space. All equipment displays will be static unless agreed to in writing by ISRI. Requests to operate equipment must be submitted in writing no later than April 15, 2010. Any equipment, or part thereof, that is suspended above the ground must be locked out or blocked in a manner that prevent the equipment, or part thereof, from drifting or falling towards the ground. The adequacy of such locking out or blocking shall be determined by Show Management in its sole discretion.

Fire and Safety Regulations. Only flame-retardant materials approved for use in the Convention Center shall be used in displays. The use of open flames, acetylene, propane, or butane gas, oxygen tanks, or flammable materials or fluids is prohibited unless prior written approval is obtained from local government authorities, the Convention Center, and ISRI. Possession, display, use, or demonstration of any devices or materials containing radioactive or hazardous substances or using X-rays is prohibited unless prior written approval is obtained from local and state government authorities and ISRI. All displays, exhibit materials, and equipment must be reasonably located within Exhibitor's booth space. No obstruction shall be placed in any aisle, passageway, lobby, or exit leading to any fire extinguishing appliances. Equipment must be protected by safety guards. All equipment must comply with the American National Standards Institute's Safety Requirements for Design, Use, and Maintenance of Metal Scrap Processing Equipment and applicable federal, state, and local regulations, as well as any other applicable consensus standards issued by the American National Standards Institute. Safety recommendations submitted by ISRI and/or show management shall be complied with by Storage. Exhibitor is not permitted to store boxes or packing crates in or behind exhibit booths. Prior to ISRI Trade Show Management's inspection of the Exposition Hall at 2 p.m. on Wednesday, May 5, 2010, all boxes and crates will be placed in storage provided they are properly labeled for storage. Those not so labeled will be removed and destroyed. Goods received after the opening of the Exposition shall be delivered and arranged at times other than during official Exposition hours.

Shipping. Neither ISRI nor the Convention Center will accept advance shipments of freight. Exhibitor shall pay the cost of drayage for removal of such shipments from the Convention Center plus storage expenses until the Convention Center is ready to accept incoming shipments from the authorized drayage company, plus cost of drayage to bring the shipment to the Exposition.

Smoking. Smoking will not be permitted within the Exposition and hospitality areas.

ATTACHMENT B - EXHIBITOR SUBCONTRACTOR REQUIREMENTS

As provided in Section 5 of attached contract, exhibitors utilizing independent service contractors must meet the following requirements:

- The subcontractor must obtain all licenses, permits, or bonds required by Federal, state, county, and municipal governments prior to commencing work. ISRI reserves the right to request evidence of compliance;

- The Exhibitor-appointed subcontractor must carry minimum insurance equal to that set forth in section 2e of the Terms and Conditions. Proof of coverage must be received by ISRI not later than February 1, 2010. A certificate of insurance as required in section 2e shall be provided by the contractor and, in addition to the additional insureds in 2e, shall also list ISRI's official Exposition Service Contractor. The certificate(s) must bear the legend that "ISRI will receive 30 days' prior written notice of cancellation of, or any change to, the policy";

- Employees of the subcontractor must obtain and wear official ISRI badges while on the Exposition floor; and

- The Exhibitor-appointed subcontractor must comply with all labor agreements and practices of the Convention Center and the Exposition's Official Service Contractor and must not commit, or allow to be committed by persons in its employment, any acts that could lead to work stoppages, strikes, or labor problems.

- The Exhibitor-appointed subcontractor must fully comply with the rules and regulations of the Convention Center and be prepared to demonstrate such compliance to the Convention Center, and will be responsible for any noncompliance.
